

OUSSAMA OULOARK

Hello, my name is Oussama Oulourak, a 25-year-old tech enthusiast from Marrakech, Morocco. I have a passion for AI tools and enjoy working in collaborative environments to solve problems and innovate with new ideas. In addition to my love for football and MMA, I also enjoy hiking with friends. I've developed several app projects, including GymGenuise, BMI, and Pasman, which will soon be available online.
